

NEW ENGLAND DISPUTE RESOLUTION
NEUTRAL PROFILE

John N. Tramontozzi, Esq.

A highly skilled lawyer who has tried hundreds of civil and criminal cases, John Tramontozzi has a wealth experience, that enables him to excel in many different areas of the profession.

He has practiced law in Massachusetts State and Federal Courts since 1982.

As an Assistant District Attorney in Suffolk County from 1982-1987, John successfully prosecuted serious criminal defendants and also provided the DA's office with valuable research and writing skills. Included in this work are many cases decided by the Appeals and Supreme Judicial Courts of Massachusetts.

Following his work in the DA's office, Attorney Tramontozzi was retained by Commercial Union Insurance Company and OneBeacon Insurance Group as a Senior Trial Attorney, handling personal injury actions, construction site accidents, environmental claims, general insurance coverage disputes and the prosecution of many subrogation matters. He represented both personal and commercial clients.

In addition to his busy trial practice, John has served as a mediator and arbitrator on various matters relating to personal injury, domestic relations and contract law. He has volunteered his mediation skills for the Malden and Lawrence District Courts.

Since 2006, Attorney Tramontozzi has been an elected Alderman in the City of Melrose, where he is responsible for carrying out the legislative powers of the City, including issuance of licenses, appropriations, appointments to commissions and boards, reviewing zoning matters and constituent services.
