Ag-Wam Season Off and Running

With newly-elected Captains Zach Rioux (Ags) and Spence Pollack (Wams) at the helm, the 2004 Ag-Wam season has gotten off to a running start. Zach and Spence are joined by Lieutenants Mike Colt, Dave Feig, and BJ Grondin (Wams) and Si Rioux, Hunter Sprole, and Will Griffiths (Ags). On June 28, the Middle Campus Ags and Wams faced off for the annual Scavenger Hunt. After running all over campus for over an hour, the Wams found the most objects on their lists and gained three points for the season. On July 1, the Lower Middle campus squared off in a heated basketball battle on an otherwise cool evening. The Ags were able to hold on to their early lead to win a battle that was well-fought by all.

Current 2004 Ag/Wam score: 3-3.

Campers Gear Up for the 4th

Cabins are abuzz as campers plan for one of the most anticipated days of the season, July 4. Each cabin will host a midway booth, offering a chance to win a bit of candy (and possibly a chance to get messy!). Counselors are preparing the annual Counselor Spectacular waterfront program. Stay tuned for reports of what promises to be a great day!

15-Year-Olds Have Fantastic Time at Acadia

The cabins of Brown and Cornell made the most of this week's beautiful stretch of weather by spending three days in Acadia National Park on Mount Desert Island. The campers, accompanied counselors "Bos'n" Bill Auerswald, "Cox'n" Ben Rogers, "Scout" Bosco Li, and "SuperCoach" Mark Hogan, partook in a range of activities. The group hiked, practiced technical rock climbing, sea kayaked, enjoyed a brief tour of schooner SSV Tabor Boy, and enjoyed a beautiful 4:54am sunrise on their final day.
