Camp Agawam

Super Sunday!

This past Sunday in the AG/WAM season we had the highly anticipated Super Sunday. Super Sunday is a day in which there is an AG/WAM event for every campus in camp, thus everyone participates, as there are many points up for grabs. In the afternoon we had AG/WAM Sailing, which was a mixture of all age groups, followed by a Super Sunday Evening that consisted of Lower Soccer, Middle Treasure and Upper Baseball. The Ags ran away with three of the events but the Wam's took Middle Treasure.

AGAWAM ANNUAL INVITATIONAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT A.K.A. AAITT

Agawam hosted the 54th annual tennis tournament on Monday and Tuesday this week. Invitees included Camps Nashoba North, Timanous, and Winona. Franz Deiter-Sidow played at number one singles for Agawam with Ben Sataloff at number two, and Will Degerberg at number three. Gabe de Selding and Charlie Oliva earned the number one doubles position while John Sataloff and Will Hallett secured the second doubles position. Franz won the singles bracket 6-3 and 6-2 defeating the reigning champion. Ben lost in the consolation finals match for singles putting him in 4th. Gabe and Charlie won the consolation finals match for doubles, which put them in 3rd and John and Will lost in the doubles finals, which put them in 2nd. Overall, Agawam had the highest score and we won the tournament.

Intercamp Competitions

15 and under Volleyball spiked and bumped their way to a win over Nashoba on Monday. Hamlet Fort, Kyle Morrison, Jack Near, Cujo Noreña, Sandy Brown, Parker Abbott, Ryan Emberling, EJ Harrison, and Cor Bensen made up the team.

This week a 15 and under six-a-side team from Camp Nashoba came over to play and Agawam won the game 4-1. Jack Near, Ken Fryer, Gabe de Selding and Christian Johnson scored goals.

Agawam Cup

During the fifth and final installment of the Agawam Cup racing series, the sailors arrived on the beach to an extremely windy lake. Heading into the final races, Agawam was in 3rd place by $\frac{3}{4}$ of a point, trailing Camp Arcadia and Camp Winona. However, despite the wind conditions, Agawam pulled ahead in the ranks when Will Degerberg and Conn Curry placed first in both of the 15 and under races. Next up were the 13 and under races that Tommy Webel and Miko McGuire sailed, in which they placed second in two of the races and fourth in the last race. All in all, the great sailing performances were enough to bring Agawam Cup home to Camp Agawam once again. Congrats to all the sailors who sailed throughout the series!

World Cup Soccer

This past week Agawam began its annual World Cup Soccer Tournament. Each cabin chooses a country to represent and then plays against each other to determine the World Cup champions. In the Lower Campus, a surprising victory went to the cabin of Mason. The cabin of Otyokwa won the Lower Middle tournament. In the Upper Middle Campus, it came down to a shoot-out between the cabin of Bates and the cabin of Colby, in which Bates emerged victorious. Upper Campus still has a few games to play, but currently in the running are the cabins of Dartmouth, Outpost, Brown and Cornell.

Winona Regatta

Last Thursday, nine of our sailors headed over to Camp Winona for the last regatta of the summer. Stephen Webel, Sandy Brown, Will Degerberg, Will Stark, Jack Near, JP Steers, Daniel Paseltiner, Dylan Souter and Tommy Webel all sailed fast and helped bring home 2nd place.
