

Aganews ~~~~~

Volume 22 Number 1

Camp Agawam

June 29, 2008

Greetings from Camp Agawam!

The Aganews is a weekly newsletter that serves as an informative guide of weekly, notable, and exciting events at Camp. The Aganews was developed in 1987 and it serves as living proof of the “Agawam Week” in review, which helps those of us at Camp remember the things that happened during the week. The Aganews also serves as the stationary for the letters that campers write each Sunday afternoon. The Aganews staff hopes you thoroughly enjoy our weekly account of camp life.

Camp Opens on a Real Maine Day

The opening day of our 89th season at Camp Agawam went off without a hitch! Starting in the late afternoon, under blue skies and shining sun, enthusiastic campers began to arrive by car, bus, and plane from all over the country and the world. After dinner and a few games of Frisbee tag, the campers and our staff settled in their cabins for the first night of the season. Old friends were reunited and 35 new campers were warmly welcomed into our Agawam family.

First Council Rained Out

Unfortunately, due to bad weather, the first Council of the season has been postponed. The decision was a difficult one to make, but with gray skies looming above, the choice was clear. Instead, campers enjoyed a variety of evening rainy day activities including dodgeball, quiet reading, card games, board games and other enjoyable activities in upper Mason Hall. Council is rescheduled for Sunday evening and the newly elected Tribal Chieftains as well as Firekeepers will be announced, and new campers will become members of the Agawam Tribes.

Events of the Past Week

Upper Middle Campus Day Hikes to Webster-Jackson and Mt. Chocoura
AG-WAM nominations
Book Fair

Events of the Upcoming Week

~AG-WAM Captains elected and AG-WAM events begin. Base Relay, Swim Relay and Lower Basketball
~Competitions with Timanous and Laurel South
~Fourth of July Midway Booths and Counselor Spectacular
~Agawam Cup sailing competition begins
~Acadia and Baldface trips leave

When writing to your son, please address the envelope as indicated below:

Son's Name
Camp Agawam
54 Agawam Road
Raymond, Maine 04071

Cabin: _____